 A heartfelt thank you from our executive committee, Sharon, Pat, Bonita and Clorinda for helping to sort and working the books sale. This event is a group participation and all decisions come from our executive committee as a group unit no one person makes decisions on their own.

Pat Rizol – Books have been donated to the following groups, Holly Glen school, Pfeiffer Center, African Village in Liberia, Camden County Diocese Housing Service Center, Kennedy Hospital, Juniper Village Nursing facility, Methodist Church in Williamstown. Pat asked Samantha on update from Book Finders. Eight boxes have been shipped, we will not know how much will be donated to us until the books are sold. Samantha said Friends will know first since the check will be mailed to us. A discussion to eliminate plastic bags was brought up. We will use the bags that we have for the next book sale, but we would like to go GREEN, BYOB. Further discussion will be at next meeting.

Samantha Snyder handed a Material guideline that the front desk uses to collect book donations. Samantha suggested that the Friends create rules for the sorting and storing of books to sell. A rules sheet will be presented at next meeting for a vote.

Joan advised members of the all-day fund raiser at the Mona Lisia restaurant May 29, 2019. We will receive 10% for the day receipts from the letter coupon. The letter will be at the front desk.

Meeting adjourned, motion by Clorinda Scarfo and second by Joan Betterly, all in favor.

Our next meeting will be
